

George Gascón
District Attorney

DA Stat Dashboards Codebook

Charging Caseload

Variable	Description
Incident.Number	Police incident report number
Arrest.Date	The date of the arrest
Case.Filed	Y/N for whether the case was filed by SFDA
Court.No	San Francisco Superior Court case number, unique to each defendant per incident
Status.CtNum	The SFDA charging status of the case per court number. The case can be 'filed,' 'other action,' or 'Discharge Only'
Mis.Arrest	TRUE/FALSE for whether it was a misdemeanor arrest
Month.Year	A month-year abbreviation of the arrest date
Index	An index for the month-year combination for proper ordering in graphing
Most Serious Crime Type	The most serious crime type among the charges presented by the police. Determined by matching charges in a case to an office-produced designation of seriousness of charges
Suspect.Crime.Type	The most serious crime type among the charges presented by the police. Determined by matching charges in a case to an office-produced designation of seriousness of charges, but with burglary separated into auto-burglary and burglary
Case Type Ct	The most serious case type among the charges presented by the police for a given court number – Felony, Misdemeanor arrest
Action Taken Ct	Yes/No for whether some action, either filed or other action, was taken on a court number

Incoming Caseload

Variable	Description
UniqueID	A unique identifier consisting of the type-arrest date-court number
Court_No	San Francisco Superior Court case number, unique to each defendant per incident
Incident.Number	Police incident report number
Arrest.Date	The date of arrest
Filing.Date	The date of filing
Filed.Case.Type	Abbreviation for the most serious case type among the charges filed by SFDA for a given court number – F=Felony, M=Misdemeanor, I=Infraction, and NULL=Missing
Crime.Type	Abbreviation for the most serious crime type among the charges filed by SFDA
Crime.Description	The most serious crime type among the charges filed by SFDA
Month-Year	A month-year abbreviation of the arrest date
Document.Name	Denotes whether the case was a motion to revoke (MTR) probation or mandatory supervision, or a felony or misdemeanor filing
Document.Date	The date on which the MTR was filed
Type	MTR – a motion to revoke probation or mandatory supervision; NF – a new filing

Index	An index for the month-year combination for proper ordering in graphing
Crime Type Aggregate	The most serious crime type for the case aggregated to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ASLT – Assault • AUTO – Auto theft • BURA – Auto-burglary • BURC – Commercial burglary • BURR – Residential burglary • DRUG – Drug law violation • DUI – Driving under the influence • GUN – Gun law violation • ROBB – Robbery • STAY – Stat away order violation • THFT – Theft • VAN – Vandalism • OTHER – A category that bins together all other types of crimes that each make up a very small percentage of the caseload. Note that the crime type for each case can be found in the “Crime Type” field
Case Type Full	The most serious case type for a record – Felony, Misdemeanor, MTR

Trial Caseload

Variable	Description
Index	A unique identifier for each defendant-jury trial combination
CourtNumber_x	Court numbers associated with a given defendant-jury trial
Case Type	Abbreviation for the most serious case type for a given defendant-jury trial – F=Felony, M=Misdemeanor, and NULL=Missing
Outcome	The unique outcome for each defendant in a given trial: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dismissed • Guilty/Sustained/True • Mistrial • Not Guilty/Not Sustained/Not True • Plea-Felony • Plea-Misdemeanor
Jury Sworn Date	Date the jury is sworn and the trial commences
Trial End Date	Date the verdict is delivered (or plea is entered) and trial ends
Co-Def	Y/N indicator for if the trial involved co-defendants
Trial Length Days	Number of calendar days between jury sworn date and trial end date
Convicted	Convicted/Not Convicted indicator for if the case ended in a plea or a guilty verdict
Concluded	Concluded/Not Concluded indicator for if the case reached a resolution by guilty or not guilty verdict, plea, or dismissal. Mistrials are pending matters that are categorized as “Not Concluded”
Trial Outcome Agg	Convicted/Mistrial/Not Convicted aggregating trial outcomes to three levels. Convicted includes guilty and plea outcomes. Not convicted includes not guilty and dismissed outcomes.
Case Type Full	The most serious case type for a defendant-jury trial – Felony, Misdemeanor, Mental Health, NULL